Nathan Smith

nsmith320@gatech.edu | Atlanta, GA | (478) 719-0774 | linkedin.com/in/nsmith2023gatech

Education

Georgia Institute of Technology – Atlanta, GA Expected graduation May 2023

- Candidate for Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

First Presbyterian Day School – Macon, GA May 2019

- High School Diploma, Honors with Distinction
- AP Scholar

Experience

Part-time worker, Smith and Sons Cafeteria – Macon, GA Summer 2012 - 2016

- Served food on the cafeteria line
- Ran cash register on the line
- Baked pies, bread in the kitchen

Part-time worker, P&P Liquor Store – Macon, GA Summer 2017 - 2019

- Stocked storefront
- Ran business errands (such as for monetary transactions, money orders)

Student Worker, ARCS I.T. – Atlanta, GA Spring 2020

- Part time I.T. worker for Georgia Institute of Technology, specialized for the sciences and research sector.
- Experience setting up computers and laptops under campus policies, handling network and local computer system errors.

Skills

Programming

- Java, Kotlin, C#, Javascript, Python
- Object-oriented programming, User-interface and backend development

Information Technology and Computer Systems

- Volunteer work for high school IT department
- Built and spec'd, repaired computers
- Experience running Linux servers for personal and school projects

Leadership

Drum Major, First Presbyterian Dayschool – Macon, GA August 2016 – May 2019

- Led practices three days a week
- Ran music and cheers on gamedays, conducted halftime show

Programming Captain, Smida Syndicate – Macon, GA August 2016 – May 2019

- Developed team standards for programming and documentation
- Won State award for best programming (2018-2019 season)
- Lead and mentored students for robotics programming